ITEM 3: CORRESPONDENCE

3/29/25 via comment card I came to the Wicked celebration with my two and six-year-old. The activities were great! Materials were nicely organized and a lot of thought was given to incorporate color theme. Very comfy and cozy atmosphere. Thanks to the volunteers, too, especially the ones dealing with the perler beads. Shout out to the librarians who showed extra commitment dressing up for the occasion. You can tell they love what they do! They always organize the coolest things!

4/17/25 via comment card What a wonderful library!

3/31/25 via letter I wanted to express my appreciation for the care and commitment to excellent the Commerce Township Community Library offers. They have such wonderful service with your wide array of books, magazines and tapes. I have been enjoying all of these for years.

I took advantage of the free seed library with six of my grandsons. They all got busy with planting the seeds when they got home in mini gardens with lids I bought at Meijer. I love that the introduction to planting a mini farm and taking care of plants originated with our local library.

I just recently decided to attend some of your special programs in the evening. Attending the Macro Val Healthy Cooking Class was enlightening. She knew so much about nutrition and the benefits of ingredients she was using in her brown rice salad demonstration. And we got to sample all the tasty goodness. I have cooked her recipes several times and became a fan of the ume plum vinegar she introduced us to. Val explained the healthy benefits of this special vinegar and it tastes so good.

Since I grew up in Detroit, I remember the Vernors Building downtown. My friends and I enjoyed the program about the history of the company. The Vernors pop was of course delicious. Since that is my favorite soda of choice, I was gladly drinking it at my seat while learning all about the Vernors company.

I look forward to attending more programs at the library and getting education along with reading the books.

I almost forgot to tell you how helpful the young man with glasses in the teen room was. Grandson had to find a dystopian novel and we were having a hard time finding them.

Program Highlights

363 people participated in the Youth Department's Wicked Scavenger Hunt during the last week of March. Many children visited the Library specifically to take part in Youth Librarian Lauren Aquilina's engaging monthly scavenger hunt.

Librarians Lauren Aquilina, Anjelica Lyman, and Jacob Szeptyk also hosted a Wicked event on Saturday, March 29, honoring The Wizard of Oz and the release of the new movie. Nearly 100 people joined us for the fun!

Librarians helped two local elementary schools celebrate March is Reading Month. Lauren Aquilina attended Reading Night at Loon Lake Elementary, engaging with local families and sharing information about the Library's resources and programs. Marissa Boisclair and Ashley Moran hosted Glengary Elementary's students, who took field trips to the Library to celebrate March is Reading Month.

Pete the Cat was another special visitor we welcomed to the Library in March! We were thrilled to host over 100 attendees for our Pete the Cat Party! It was a fantastic event filled with stories, activities, and fun for all ages.

Our bimonthly Tea and Murder Book Club, one of the newest evening book clubs we have added to our slate of programs, continues to be popular. Patrons give high praise to coordinator Adult Services Librarian Brannon McCullough. They find the entire event engaging and report that Brannon "makes the whole experience perfect."

Brannon also hosted local Vernors historian Keith Wunderlich. We received an outpouring of positive reactions to the program and the comment that "the library personnel are doing a good job of bringing in good programs."

ITEM 7: OLD BUSINESS

ITEM 8: NEW BUSINESS

a. Electronic Resource Discussion

Library Director Lobert gave a presentation on the overhead screen.

The Library provides residents with access to a wide array of online databases, eBooks, journals, and other research materials. Digital resources are provided through two avenues:

- 1) Commerce Township Direct Subscriptions, and
- 2) Michigan eLibrary (MeL) subscriptions.

ITEM 8: NEW BUSINESS (Electronic Resource Discussion continued)

Librarians are constantly evaluating digital subscriptions including: what we subscribe to and what we do not subscribe to.

Electronic resources under considerations:

- 1) Gannett Database Subscription - Online Access to the Detroit News, Detroit Free Press, and USA Today

Note: Pernick would like to see the Oakland Press included in place of USA Today). Director Lobert said the Gannett Database Subscription does not offer the Oakland Press subscription.

- 2) Fiero Database Subscription (digital resource to introduce and support coding in our community)
- 3) Udemy (on-demand video courses for the most in-demand career skills across business, tech, and more) and Gale Courses Database Subscription (structured, instructor-led courses)
- 4) Enhancing Brainfuse Services with Barron's (up to date digital books for AP® SAT®, ACT® and key academic subjects with instant tutoring support from Brainfuse experts) and VetNow (provides veterans and their families with career coaching, resume assistance, academic support, and help navigating benefits through experienced veteran navigators).

The cost is $19,948 for adding any or all these resources will require a budget amendment. The 2025 Approved Electronic Databases Budget is $139,000

Additional budget considerations, planning for the replacement of MeL databases if the program no longer receives federal or statewide funding.

If not funded at the federal or state level, these resources will be unavailable to residents unless directly subscribed to by Commerce Library:
Youth Digital Resources (World Book Early Learning, Pebble Go, Britannica School Elementary, World Book Kids, Britannica School Middle, Fundamentals: for Prek-2 Students, and Explora and EBSCO Experience High School.

We are paid up thru end of September 2025.

To consider: a $50,000 - $60,000 budget increase in the Electronic Database Budget. This increase would permit the library to add the electronic resources discussed as well as allot funds for replacing a portion of the MeL databases that, due to the elimination of IMLS funds for the Library of Michigan, could be discontinued in October 2025.

Supervisor Gray would be interested to see how many people use the databases. Director Lobert will provide the number of people that use the databases at the next Library Advisory Meeting.

No action taken.
